

Our Confidentiality Statement

The chaplains are here to support the whole university community, of all faiths and none.

We are always happy to talk with you, or simply to offer a listening ear, whether it's about faith or anything else.

There are Anglican, Roman Catholic and Muslim chaplains on campus regularly, and if you would like to speak to someone from another faith, please ask us as we have a range of associate Chaplains who may be able to help you.

You can talk to us confidentially but if we believe you are a risk to yourself or others, then we will support you in finding the help you need and may need to share information in order to best support you.
